Vintage Score best drinking

Pinot Noir

RR

2013: heady, ripe fruit nose, beautifully pale, rich full flavoured but with style and elegance and nicely low alcohol.

2013 88 2013-2022

Mourvedre

R

2012: quite unique with bags of character. Spicy, classic wet-dog nose with silky liquorice pungent game flavours. Not for the feint hearted. Needs time.

2012 87 2013-2024

2013: liquorice and cassis, more supple than '12, with bags of flavour and depth, finishes a touch astringent.

2013 87 2013-2022

Cabernet Sauvignon

RR

2012: initial notes of sawmill shavings then rich, assertive fruit, will blend and improve.

2012 87 2013-2022

Shiraz

RR

2013: mid depth with silky soft mouthfeel and a gentle assertiveness, hedgerow, bramble and spice.

2013 86 2013-2022

Ella Marie

RR

2007: supple, spicy black fruits with gentle but effective tannins. Undemanding but with lots going on.	2007 88 2008-2018
2011: silky blend led by rich blackcurranty lozenge like ripeness. Nice balance and good length, quite classy.	2011 90 2012-2020
