Vintage Score best drinking

Sauvignon Blanc

R

2011: light gold, soft and smooth acidity, rich and medium bodied with lots of green fruit. Not overtly herbaceous.

2011 85 2011-2015

Shiraz

R

2003: tasted at 10 years old and beautiful. Balanced, persistent and with layers of flavour.

2003 92 2004-2016

2005 75 2005-2012

2006: up front berry nose then sweet fruit palate with dusty tannins in a simple style.

2006 85 2007-2017

2008: sweetly oaked yet with soft tannins and layers of rich dark fruit. Mouthfilling, complex and very classy.

2008 91 2009-2022

Stoep Shiraz

RR

2004: little obvious lost colour but lovely tertiary notes, oaky and sinewy with lashings of classic fruit still. Real character.

2004 91 2006-2017

Cabernet Sauvignon

R

2006: still vibrant and juicy with deep fruit and developed flavours. Over delivers at this price.

2006 86 2008-2017

Cabernet Sauvignon Reserve RR

2006: little ageing, lusty fruit, full bodied with oodles of cigar box and cassis. Restrained style perfect with food.	2006 89 2008-2019
---	--------------------------

Cabernet Sauvignon/Shiraz RR

2006: still with bold tannins and dark berry fruit. Lots of spice and blueberry; satisfying but lacking identity.	2006 83 2007-2016
--	--------------------------

Dessert Red R

Jeripigo style and full of plummy fruit with musk. Rich, warm but not overly alcoholic and finishing deliciously sweet.	NV 86 1-6 years
