Vintage Score best drinking

Pinot Gris RR

2017: just mid weight with a nice oily viscosity, more minerality over feint spicy fruit.

2017 86 2017-2026

Equilibrium RR

2019: crisp, just medium bodied and still taut, with mandarin, marzipan, white flowers and a slight cream hint, needing time to show.

2019 90 2021-2028

Chenin Blanc RR

2017: lots of clean and fresh yellow fruits, some texture and enough grip.

2017 87 2017-2027

2019: fine and quite restrained, needing time to open with classy yellow fruit, focussed palate and length. Will improve.

2019 89 2021-2030

Chardonnay RR

2016: wood notes then heaps of peach and white pear notes, focussed and with cream hint, very elegant.

2016 91 2017-2027

Single Vineyard Chardonnay

RRR

2015: deep and full bodied, with viscous creamy notes, mineral hint and piercing focussed yellow fruits, profound, complex and expressive.

2015 93 2016-2026

Grenache

RR

2017: pale depth and hue, mauve hint, punchy and clean with fresh floral and red berry notes.

2017 87 2017-2027

Parquet

RR

2016: Shiraz led, bright and supple and not overworked, with sandalwood and dark berry flavours.

2016 88 2016-2026

Shiraz/Cabernet Sauvignon

RR

2015: dark and spicy with pepper and blue-edged dark fruits, forward, hearty and succulent, not for the timid.

2015 90 2017-2027

Syrah

RR

2012 90 2014-2025

2015: not too peppery, more Rhone styled with fine, elegant fruit and restrained balance, quite classy.

2015 90 2016-2028

2017: elegant and silky smooth, dense black fruit and mulberry core, currant liqueur, luxurious and lingering with a pleasant hint of charred oak finish.

2017 93 2019-2029
