Vintage Score best drinking

Mailing May Sauvignon Blanc

R

2020: green tinted lemon-lime and fresh gooseberry, with warmer tropical fruit later in an easy-drinking style for early consumption.

2020 87 2020-2026

Blueish White

R

2014: lightish style, dry and fresh with white stone fruit. Pleasant drinking.

2014 83 2014-2020

2017: bright and lightish yellow fruited and friendly

2017 84 2017-2024

2018: mid weight, quite pale, fresh and zesty
lemon fruited, clean and bright and straightforward.

2018 85 2018-2025

Cameo Chenin Blanc

R

2020: initially crisply intense with classic floral and apple notes but is rather light in the mid palate and fades quickly, good value though.

2020 88 2020-2028

Stamp of Chenin

RR

	2008 82 2008-2014

grainy tannins and full mouthfeel.

Missing Virgin

RRR

2012: too young to reveal layered fruit which has structure and class, needs a few years.	2012	87	2013-2022
2013: perfumed, sweet fruit, lavender and mulberry, cassis and oak, not heavy but nicely balanced.	2013	91	2015-2024
2016: big and bold, with soft lush fruit and full expression, hint of perfume and blue depth.	2016	90	2017-2028
2017: overt and unmissable, such an intense core of pure fruit, violets, plums and blueberries, plush and alluring and impossible to put down.	2017	94	2019-2030
2018: sleek yet deceptively powerful, with heady blue fruits, spice and underbrush, full bodied, generous and effective.	2018	91	2020-2030

Treskilling Yellow NLH

RRR

2015: hugely expressive, walnuts, dried fruit and quince, nicely balanced and retaining crispness. Delicious.	2015	90	2015-2027
2017: pale gold and with a musty honey textured palate, dry and lovely and hiding its 150g of RS. Quite lovely.	2017	92	2018-2028
