Cinsault

RRR

2019: seductive ripe fruit nose, silky smooth and luxurious mouthfeel, clean and precise, a marvellous wine.

2019   93   2020-2029

Nomadis Cinsault/Pinotage

RRR

2015: another unfussy, low alcohol (11.5%), fruit driven wine, shiny cherry gloss, sweet raspberry and strawberry fruit palate, supple, engaging and charming.

2015   90   2019-2028

2019: fresh cranberry and a hint of scorched earth in this limpid and nimble version, defined and pliant and one to ponder over.

2019   89   2020-2029

2020: pristine and bright cranberry and raspberry fruits, frisky acidity and supple, fleshy mouthfeel with 11.5% alcohol and just enough weight.

2020   90   2020-2029

Atlantikas Pinotage

RR

2019: whole-bunch lower alcohol (11.5%) and funky nosed fruit compote, tight acid hold, and divisive

2019   87   2019-2028

jam simplicity, a bit of an effort., overtly bracing.

2020: again, pungent styled, with fresh acidity almost

2020 87 2020-2028

unnerving pyrazine bite, then red berry and classic varietal tar hint, certainly arresting.

Féniks Pinotage

RR

2019: low (12%) alcohol on an edgy, supple wine, with

2019 89 2020-2029

a familiar varietal twang bordering on ascetic tones, fresh and smooth and familiar.

Swanesang Syrah

RR

2019: light and pliant, with dark and juicy fruit, bright

2019 88 2019-2028

acid balance and carbonic agility, an easy-going wine.
