Vintage Score best drinking

Little Flower MCC RR

Brut style and quite firm, with soft yellow	NV	82	1-8years fruits and few yeasty notes coming through.
Bright and straightforward.

Runner Duck Sauvignon Blanc (was White)

2011: very pale, fruity nose and palate in a	2011	78	2011-2017
lighter style with a dry finish. Easy drinking.
2012: touch watery on the hue and on the	2012	82	2012-2017
palate, pleasant but lacks pow, Fresh Sauvignon bite if a bit short.
2017: nicely weighted, with viscous feel	2017	84	2017-2023
yet holding crisp, apple fruit.
2018: pale straw, tight mineral and steely nose,	2018	86	2018-2026
bright green citrus fruit palate with apple note, brief but zesty.
2020: fresh green citrus, melon and indistinct	2020	87	2020-2027
tropical hint then a fuller, creamy palate over steely dryness.
2022: assumed wooded because of colour and	2022	78	2022-2025
subdued fruit, but oxidation is the culprit, living on the edge.

Runner Duck Chenin Blanc R

2022: bracing but textured, zesty lime and summer	2022	87	2022-2028
white blossoms, great value.

Runner Duck Reserve White RR

2016: pale straw and shy then exploding	2016	86	2016-2025
flavours of dried candy and peach, richly layered.

Eve White Merlot RR

2018: mid straw depth, with appealing savoury nose,	2018	86	2018-2026
sinewy, weighty and staying bright throughout, intriguing avocado and green apple with herb hint.

Runner Duck Rosé R

2011: pale pink hue, off dry palate of	2011	79	2011-2017
strawberries and fresh, juicy fruit. Very pleasant.
2012: gentle rose blush with soft strawberry	2012	80	2012-2017
fruit and a dry grip throughout.
2017: pink-red hue, overt nose and juicy red	2017	82	2017-2023
berry compote. Told off-dry but only has 5g/l RS?, tastes dry.
2018: rusty copper hue, sweet, rather heavy nose,	2018	85	2018-2024
sweet entry but nicely dry finish, lots of ripe red berry fruit, simple but fun.
2020: much deeper red than previously, bone dry	2020	84	2020-2026
with rose water, Turkish delight and ripe cherry lavours, fleeting.

Runner Duck Red R

2009: very deep dusty nose, dry spices and	2009	82	2009-2018
a rustic, sinewy mouthfeel. Grippy tannins but sturdy fruit.
2011: dark blue fruited on nose and palate.	2011	83	2011-2020
Grippy, bold spicy plums and black fruits.
2015: deep ruby with an attractive nose of	2015	83	2015-2025
spiced hedgerow black fruits. Chewy tannins in balance.
2017: quite deep with a fruity and juicy mouthfeel,	2017	87	2018-2027
red berries, bramble and a spice note, finishing ripe and fulsome.

Terrace Bay RR

2003: some visible ageing and developed	2003	83	2003-2009
flavours but still lots of brambly fruit and an earthy, dry finish.
2005: tertiary notes over red berry fruit and	2005	85	2007-2015
lean oak. Dry and best drunk soon.
2015: mid depth and weight, shy nose, red	2015	86	2015-2026
and dark berry notes, long and satisfying.
2017: forward red berry fruits, dark earth cedar	2017	86	2018-2027
and tar note, smooth and easy yet quite muscular, pastille boiled fruit mouthfeel.

Coastal Rock Merlot

	2003	82	2003-2010
2005: slight colour fade, an arresting nose	2005	84	2006-2017
of minty cherry fruit. Smoky, woody and very soft in the mouth but with dry tannins.
2006: sweet nose then bone dry, earthy	2006	83	2006-2017
mouthfeel. Herbal, burnt cherry and textured grip.
2015: mid garnet hue, lots of soft red berry	2015	83	2016-2025

RR

richness but finishing firm and with promise.

2017: wild cherry and underbrush, an earth	2017	87	2018-2027
note on a pleasant wine, but not 'extraordinary'
as the label proclaims.

Estate Merlot RR

2010: some development showing, with soft,	2010	88	2011-2020
savoury and red berry forest notes, classic and still delicious.

Malbec RR

2015: deeply blue tinged, full bodied and youthful,	2015	88	2017-2026
with dark fruit, good balance and compelling intricacy, has years to go.

Cabernet Sauvignon RRR

	2002	89	2004-2014
2004: rich, deep hue, shy nose of soft blue	2004	86	2005-2018
fruits, oak supports cassis and savoury notes.
A serious wine.
2005: sweet fruit and ripe black fruit flavours	2005	92	2007-2018
dominate. Smooth, elegant and still full of class.
Drinking beautifully.
2007: still too young, tightly bound and yet to	2007	84	2009-2020
reveal spicy, dry fruits and deep cassis notes.
2009: inky at nearly a decade, lots of plums,	2009	92	2009-2025
cedar and dusty tannins, elegant and long finish. Classic.
2010: released at age nine, showing good colour,	2010	92	2012-2028
developed savoury nose, cigar box and earth with lots of tangy cassis and currant fruit.
2015: inky shine and notes of graphite and pencil,	2015	90	2017-2027
with dusty tannins, and a surprisingly nimble cassis

Scion Ridge Shiraz

RR

	2002	85	2002-2010
2003: still deeply coloured, lots of dark,	2003	90	2005-2015
peppery fruit and a dry finish. Drinking nicely now and perfect with red meat.
2005: just holding deep fruits but getting	2005	87	2006-2017
drier and needs drinking soon.
2015: deeply hued with a serious dusty,	2015	88	2016-2027
smoky nose and blackcurrant spice on the palate.
2017: sweet vanilla wood nose then soft and full	2017	87	2018-2027
hedgerow black fruits, spicy blackberry with a simple, generous palate.

Estate Shiraz RR

2009: still full colour at 8 years, oak notes	2009	90	2010-2021
then ripe, generous and complex, really good.

Estate Red RRR

	2001	89	2002-2014
2003: deep core with a touch of brick, dry	2003	87	2005-2017
cigar, tobacco and oak over big fruit flavours.
Savoury, chewy and dry; a wine to ponder over.
2004: lovely tertiary notes, leather and spice	2004	92	2006-2020
and classy fruit persistence. Perfect food wine.
2007: at ten this is still intense, deeply coloured,	2007	91	2008-2022
and full fruited. Spice, vanilla and blackberries, wonderful.
2008: deep and spicy, with accessible black fruits,	2008	87	2010-2023
nicely balanced if fleeting.
2009: still purple-plum hued at age ten, perfumed	2009	92	2011-2028
nose, smoky and serious, with clean, deep fruit layers, balanced, restrained and long.

2015: sappy and sinewy, a wine of structure and	2015	91	2016-2026
backbone with tomato leaf, mint and earth tones, lean and cerebral.

Cape Tawny Ltd Edition RRR

1999: still richly coloured, intensely raisined	1999	93	2002-2022
nose and layers of sumptuous off dry fruits.
Divine.

Cape Colony Vintage RR

2005: mid depth and not too heavy. Sweet	2005	88	2006-2019
fruit with floral and minty notes then delicious orange peel and mulberry flavours.
Quite different and totally charming.
2008: deep, rich and overtly Christmas pudding	2008	92	2009-2026
and dried peel notes, sweet, unctuous and seductive.
2010: opaque, a touch hot, but yielding to classic	2010	88	2011-2026
rich dried fruits, serious and satisfying.
2011: garnet deep hue, bold dried fruit nose, raisins,	2011	88	2012-2027
dates, ripe and smooth, very rich if a touch 'hot'.

Territa Cape Vintage RRR

2012: luxuriously smooth and unctuous, with soaked	2012	92	2014-2030
prunes, dried walnut and alcohol-seeped raisins, harmonious and heady.
